A ONE-NAME STUDY

Norfolk, England – Baptisms – Database: familysearch.org England Bishop's Transcripts, 1685-1941

A bishop's transcript is a copy of a parish register. As bishop's transcripts generally contain more or less the same information as parish registers, they are an invaluable resource when a parish register has been damaged, destroyed, or otherwise lost. Bishop's transcripts are often of value even when parish registers exist, as priests often recorded either additional or different information in their transcripts than they did in the original registers. Beginning in 1598, every parish priest of the Church of England was supposed to make a copy of his parish register and send it to the archdeacon or bishop every year. Termed either archdeacon's or bishop's transcripts, these copies were generally produced in the same form as a regular parish register. The images of these transcripts are available for you to view at familysearch.org, however, I have viewed each one included below to ensure all information has been noted in these transcriptions.
